

Gandhi on “Sustainability”

a.k.a. “Fairness across space & Fairness through time

“That economics is untrue which ignores or disregards moral values.”

“There is more to life than increasing its speed.”

“Economics that hurt the moral wellbeing of an individual or a nation are immoral and, therefore, sinful.”

“A nonviolent system of government is clearly an impossibility so long as the wide gulf between the rich and the hungry millions persists.”

– Mohandas K. Gandhi
